prepare for worship.

Throughout 2011,
we are gathering for worship through the singing of Psalms.
This setting of Psalm 91 by an English Pastor
offers us a beautiful and simple setting
that could easily be learned by children.

*In preparing to eat a meal we wash our hands. Similarly in preparing to take of the Lord's Table we repent of known and unknown sins and seek the forgiveness
freely offered through Christ.*

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord
Let us give thanks to the Lord
It is right for us to give thanks

The Words of Institution

Praise to you, Lord Jesus.
Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

We serve wine during communion cup at the center of the tray. While all have received, and we will partake worship will be interspersed with songs.

mercies never come to an end. They great is God's faithfulness to me. God hope, therefore I will hope in God. and all is well. And I linger long in its spell. And the music on my is like a river overflowing with the celebration. My heart is like a river awakened to those mornings, where seems no cause for gladness and my days, when morning means another sort and no reason left for singing. y, for I cannot bear tomorrow and I Lord never ceases (I cannot sing to an end, (Somebody sing them for s faithfulness to me; (where is your s my soul. Therefore I will hope, those wondrous mornings, when in. And I think that I am hungry; or in the rain. Each sound is like a fragrant sweet perfume. And the and the grieving and the gloom. The es never come to an end. They are is God's faithfulness to me. God is herefore I will hope in God.

This modern text speaks honestly of the conflict in our souls between times of trust and times of anxiety; times of joy and times of sadness. In those times, we repeatedly sing to ourselves the promise of God's Word, found in Psalms and in Lamentations 3:22-23.
